Professional Disclosure Statement

This statement has been provided for your information and protection. It provides information regarding my approach to counseling, education, credentials, your rights as a client and my fees.

Approach to Counseling

I believe counseling is a process in which client and counselor work together to reach the goals set forth by the client. When working with children, play is their language and counseling may include non-directive forms of play therapy as well as more directive parent-child-interaction therapy. I operate from a developmental, behavioral and family systems approach to counseling. My work with children is also based on the techniques of Theraplay®.

As a registered intern of the Oregon board of Licensed Professional counselors and therapists, I will abide by its Code of Ethics. I am under the ongoing supervision of David Wenzel, PhD, LPC, which I will be happy to explain.

I/We understand that sessions may be audio/video taped for use in supervision. _____ (initial)
